

PQ Meeting - August, 18 2010

The August meeting of the PQ Guild was held at Crossroads Baptist Church of Dunedin. President Susan Herman began at 7:00PM by greeting the members using our new portable PA system. She welcomed new members: Jackie Foulk, Greg Freidman, and Laura Raczekour.

Reports of Officers

Vice-President: no report

Treasurer: A PQ contribution letter is available now to use whenever anyone or a business donates items to our guild.

Secretary: minutes from June available on line.

Reports of Standing Committees

Programs/Education: September and October meetings have been swapped and the September meeting will be our PQ members internal quilt show and October the sewing space. Categories for the quilt show will be posted in the newsletter and members can enter one quilt in a category.

Membership: Carol Clarke announced we have three new members. A new membership list will be sent via email.

Newsletter and Web Mistress: Great new design of the newsletter and web site by Lori Lewis.

Historian: no report

Sunshine: no report

Community Outreach: Carol Clarke encouraged people to start collecting toiletries, puzzle books, Christmas cards, etc for the Veteran's Outreach.

Retreat: Next year's quilt retreat will be at Day Springs April 29 – May 1, 2011.

A Mini retreat will be held September 10th and 11th at Anona Methodist Church in Largo. Friday September 10th from 8:00 AM to 11:00 PM and Saturday September 11th from 8:00 AM to 10:00 PM. More information will follow via email and posted on the website.

Nominating Committee: no report

Reports of Special Committees

Block of the Month: posted on the website

Block Swap: due in September

Show and Tell: none

Mini Groups: no report

National Quilting Day: no update

Brown Bag Challenge: due in November

Secret Pals: no report

Special Reports: none

Program:

Pam Bono presented a wonderful trunk show and told the history of how she and her husband started their quilting "journey." Two days of workshops were held on Friday and Saturday.

Respectfully submitted,

Pauline Mallory, secretary