

PQ Meeting June 16, 2010

President Susan Herman began the meeting by informing the membership we are purchasing a portable PA system which will hopefully be here for the next meeting. She welcomed our guest Jackie Foulk and our new member Mary E. Leonard.

Susan showed a Procrastinating Quilter Banner that she embroidered with large letters to be displayed different PQ events.

Reports of Officers

Vice-President: Nametag charms were handed out by Teri Roberts. Anyone who needs a nametag should see Carol Clarke and anyone needing a chain put on should give her nametag to Penny Black or Robin VanScoy.

Treasurer: Treasurer's report is posted on the web site.

Secretary: Approval of Minutes –Teri Roberts made a motion to approve the March minutes, Dorothy Bianco seconded the motion and members voted approval.

Reports of Standing Committees

Programs/Education:

The July PQ business meeting will be at Country Quilts and Bears for the July 15th Sale where everything is 25% off except kits. No formal meeting will be held.

Susan also informed the membership that all the Pam Bono workshops plus our August business meeting will be at Crossroads Baptist church on Curlew Road. Any nonmembers attending the Thursday night meeting will have to pay $5.00 national teacher fee. The August PQ Business meeting will be held at Crossroads Baptist Church. Lynn Woods announced we still had openings for the Pam Bono workshops. She encouraged members to sign up tonight.

Susan announced the need for someone to volunteer to become Assistant Programs Chairman to work alongside Lynn Woods for the rest of the year eventually taking over for next year. Lynn has the rest of this year planned and much of next year done already.

Membership: Carol Clarke announced anyone whose name is not typed on the membership roster is not a paid member. She encouraged everyone to check the accuracy of their information on the sheet.

Newsletter and Web Mistress: no report.

Historian: no report

Sunshine: Karen O'Malley announced that her mom Marguerite will be turning 70 and asked if members would send her a birthday card for her July 9th birthday. She will send everyone the Colorado address.

Community Outreach:

Veterans Day Sit and Sew: we had 10 people working on blocks, quilt tops, and privacy bags. The group made 36 privacy bags, several wound bags and 6 quilt tops and backs.

Donations received from members at the business meeting included 2 quilt tops, 6 large 12 ½ X 12 ½ inch blocks, 2 small 4 inch blocks, 24 privacy bags ready to be sewn, 17 completed privacy bags and one finished quilt.

Retreat: Next year's quilt retreat will be at Day Springs April 29 – May 1, 2011 A Mini retreat will be held September 11th with more information to follow.

Nominating Committee:

Reports of Special Committees

Block of the Month: posted on the website

Block Swap: due in September

Show and Tell: Some beautiful quilts were shown at the end of the meeting.

Mini Groups: no report

National Quilting Day: Lynn Woods was elected the Chairperson for the whole event this coming year. She described what she did last year for the event. We need someone from our guild to represent us for the event.

Brown Bag Challenge: due in November

Secret Pals: no report

Special Reports:

The board approved purchasing a design wall to be used at meetings, programs and workshops. Susan also mentioned we purchased a gift certificate for Ron and Pam Evans as a thank you for all the charity quilting they have done over the past year. Secretary Pauline Mallory sent the gift certificate with a thank you note to them.

Program:

Lynn Woods led us in a delightful time of playing quilt related games for our program. We learned we are quite a bright, but competitive group of quilters! Lynn made beautiful pin cushions for the top three winning groups and all went home with a button magnet. All agreed it was a fun evening!

Lynn led us

Respectfully submitted,

Pauline Mallory, secretary