

PQ Meeting May 21, 2010

The Procrastinating Quilters Guild met at Crossroads Baptist Church for the annual picnic and silent auction. Members brought food to share and enjoyed a wonderful picnic together. This event was organized and led by Vice President Teri Roberts. Programs Chair Lynn Woods organized the silent auction and funds from this event will help fund future PQ programs. Members also turned in three fat quarters for the November Brown Bag Challenge and picked up three to make a quilted project for an unknown member. Appliquéd and pieced party blocks were turned in and a drawing was conducted to determine who won the blocks. Winners were: Theresa Arrison, Penny Black, Karen O'Malley and Pauline Mallory.

Teri Roberts started the brief business meeting with Sharon Kalinowski reading a thank you note from Day Springs for our successful Spring Retreat at their facility. She also had several lost items. She announced next year's retreat will be held the last weekend of April. The dates are April 28 – 30, 2011.

Lynn Woods reminded everyone to take a picture of their sewing room to send to Carol Hemmingsen for the September program. The June meeting will be a surprise fun meeting led by Lynn Woods. There will be no meeting in July and the August meeting will feature Pam Bono. Members were reminded to sign up for her classes as the classes would be open to other guilds soon.

President Susan Herman thanked Teri for coordinating the next Swap Block which is a pumpkin block due in August. Participating members should turn in sets of six to participate.

We ended the meeting with a time of Show and Tell.

Respectfully submitted,

Pauline Mallory, secretary
