

Minutes PQ Meeting
April 21, 2011

The meeting of the PQ Guild was held at Country Quilts and Bears on Thursday, April 21, 2011. President Susan Herman opened the meeting at 7:02 p.m.

Approval of Minutes:

Minutes from the March Business meeting were available on line through the website. A motion was made by Jill French to accept the minutes and seconded by Cathy Brown.

Visitors:

Jocelyn Joyce Anderson, Pat Hazellief (Palm Harbor), Jacquie Currey (New Port Richey)

Reports of Officers:

President: (Susan Herman)

Susan showed everyone the Procrastinating Quilters Guild banner that she has been doing. She is looking for volunteers to do 18 sampler blocks to around the edge. She will bring to the retreat if anyone is interested in making a block. Colors are earth tones.

Vice President: (Teri Roberts)

Party blocks need to be completed and turned in at the beginning of the May meeting. Teri showed examples of some of the completed blocks.

A sign-up sheet was circulated so members could give Teri an idea of what covered dish items will be brought to the May Summer meeting being held at the Cross Roads Baptist Church at 6:30 p.m. on May 19.

Treasurer: (Janet Jensen)

No report - financials are in the newsletter on-line.

Programs/Education: (Lynn Woods)

Lynn announced she needs items for the May Silent Auction. Jill French suggested that charm packs be made and donated to the auction. If anyone has questions or need assistance, please contact Lynn.

Membership: (Karen O'Malley)

Membership cards were distributed.

Sunshine: (Cathy Starman)

No report

Community Outreach: (Eleanor Javid)

Eleanor showed a sample of the IV pillows for cancer kids. A basket was circulated so members could take pre-cut material and make pillows. Eleanor stressed that the pillows are not be stuffed real full.

A list of needed school supplies will be presented next month.

Retreat: Carol Clarke reported for Sharon Kalinowski

April 29-30 & May 1 at Day Springs. Everything is ready to go. If anyone has questions, please contact Sharon.

A snack sheet was circulated for those attending to sign so there won't be so many duplications and leftovers.

Brown Bag: (Jill French & Cathy Brown)

Those wanting to participate in the Brown Bag Challenge need to bring 3 coordinating fat quarters, in a brown bag to the May meeting. Bags are to be given to Jill or Cathy at the beginning of the meeting and they will distribute before the end of the meeting. All completed and labeled projects will be due at the November meeting. If you sign up to participate and do not bring a completed project to the November meeting you will not receive the project completed for you. The project completed for you will be given to the person you selected. Do not write your name on the bag, include only 3 fat quarters and do not put your name or any note in or on the bag.

Program for the Evening:

Judy Hansen, owner of the Quilt Shop of Deland. Judy designed the Antique Christmas quilt that many members appliquéd as a block of the month a few years go.

Judy was a very good inspirational speaker and gave all attending members a fat quarter to take home. She also gave away 4 door prizes.

Show and Tell:

Several members who attended the mystery quilt retreat displayed their quilts. There were also many members who showed quilts they had been working on.

50/50: (Mary Leonard for Sue Hendrickson)

Cathy Starman won $28.50.

The meeting ended at 8:55 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Paige Rapson
