Approval of Minutes:

Minutes from the September meeting were available on line through the website. A motion was made by Robin VanScoy to accept the minutes and seconded by Sandra Martin. Minutes were approved.

Visitors:

There were 5 visitors.

Reports of Officers:

President: (Susan Herman)

Susan asked the only those with handicap tags use the handicap parking spaces.

Hidden Stitches was selling raffle tickets for the quilt being displayed.

The November 17 meeting will be held at the Cross Roads Baptist Church. Everyone is asked to bring a dessert to share. This will be the brown bag reveal meeting. Election of officers for 2012 will also be held.

VP: (Teri Roberts)

Roni Hunt volunteered to be the Editor for 2012. Thanks again to Lori Lewis for all her work in the past.

Teri announced that opportunity blocks (pieced & red work) were all sold. She will be putting more kits together and they will be available at the November meeting. Lori Lewis selected the material used in the kits.

Lake Seminole Quilt Show will be held on November 10 from 10:00-3:00pm at Lake Seminole Square, 8333 Seminole Boulevard, Seminole (727-392-3932). Anyone interested in displaying their quilt should pick up a registration form at the end of the meeting.

Teri asked everyone to help put away table & chairs at the end of the meeting.

Treasurer: (Janet Jensen)

There will be a Quilt Show in Ireland, June 2012. Anyone interested should contact Janet.

Program: (Lynn Woods)

October 21st Carol Henry will be doing a workshop at the Cross Roads Church from 9-3pm on curves and swerves. Those attending are invited to bring a covered dish for lunch. The $35.00 class fee will include the template that will be used. The sign-up sheet is on the table and everyone is encouraged to attend. There are still openings.

Lynn is looking for a volunteer for the National Quilt Day held at Heritage Village on March 17, 2012. There will be a planning meeting in December. If interested in volunteering to be the chairperson, please contact Susan Herman or Lynn Woods. The Largo Crackers meet at Heritage Village on Friday mornings.

Eleanor announced that all school supplies were delivered to local schools. She announced that no pens or pencils are needed. Clearwater High needs person hygiene items.

Other:

Renita Sullivan reported that she delivered quilts, pillow cases and IV pillows to All Children's Hospital.

Sunshine: (Cathy Starman)

No report.

Brown Bag: (Jill French & Cathy Brown)

Please turn in all brown bags by November 7th. Items will be revealed at the November 17th meeting being held at the Cross Roads Baptist Church.

Program for the Evening:

Carol Henry from Ocala, an award winning NQA and AQS teacher and designer and who has been published in numerous quilting magazines over the years was the guest speaker. She is well known for her miniatures and has several collections on display in libraries and museums. As a designer, she developed a dimple technique to add curves and ovals into quilt designs. Her program, "You be the Judge" gave us a look at how quilt judges view quilts. Carol critiqued her own quilts as well as quilts brought in by our members.

50/50: (Sue Hendrickson)

Winner received $37.00.

The meeting ended at 8:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Paige Rapson

Secretary
